

THE AMERICAN LEGION
DEPARTMENT OF NORTH CAROLINA

** THE 2010 NATIONAL HIGH SCHOOL ORATORICAL CONTEST ****

The 2009-2010 National and Department Rules contain all information student contestants need to prepare themselves for competition. For the benefit of the contestants, it is imperative that all rules and regulations be followed explicitly at every level of the contest. Post Oratorical Chairmen should be responsible for contacting their local high school to insure that the Oratorical Contest is part of their school's annual program.

Oratorical Chairmen at all levels (Post/County, District, Division and Department) are responsible for selecting a site, judges, and contest officials as well as publicizing their contests. Contestants must provide a copy of their prepared oration at the Department "State" Contest.

Contest deadline dates are listed below and will be followed.

- December 18, 2009      School Contest- On or before this date, participating schools must have conducted eliminating contests to insure only a single contestant to represent a single school. School officials in charge of the contest (or Post Official) should call the Department Headquarters immediately following the conclusion of the contest to certify the winner and to be given information on the subsequent contest. The number is (919) 832-7506.
- January 16, 2010      Post or County Contest - Where there is more than one contestant in a particular county.. Must be conducted under the direction of the District Chairman or the County Chairman where one has been appointed. If there is any question, please contact local Legion Post to clarify District Chairman. (List attached)
- Jan. 23-30, 2010      District Contest - Is made up of all county winners and will be conducted under the direction of the District Chairman. District Chairmen are responsible for forwarding the completed winner certification form to Department Headquarters and to the Division Chairman immediately following the contest. The District Chairman is responsible for escorting the District winners to the Division Finals. All District winners participating in the Division Contest will be presented with a $100.00 scholarship check at the Division Contest only.
- February 13-20, 2010      Division Contest - Is made up of all District winners within the Division. The Division Chairman is responsible to see to proper execution of the contest and that winner certification form is filed with Department Headquarters immediately following the contest. He is also responsible for seeing that the Division winner is escorted to the Department Finals.
- March 6, 2010      Department (State) Finals - Location to be announced at a later date. (a $60.00 travel allowance will be paid to the Division winner to defray cost of attending Department (State) Finals. This check will be presented at the Department (State) Contest.

*National Headquarters provides an additional $1,500.00 scholarship to Department (State) winners who participate in the Regional Contest.

FORWARD

This Chairman's guide has been prepared to help the Oratorical Chairman organize and conduct a successful Oratorical Contest. This guide is also for use in conducting County, District, Division and State Contests.

The primary purpose of the Oratorical Contest is to involve high school students in America's great heritage; "The Constitution of The United States" and to promote interest in the democratic form of government.

The American Legion hopes that every high school will participate in this educational opportunity for their students to become better informed citizens and to allow them to compete for scholarship awards.

Each North Carolina American Legion Post must provide the initiative and leadership to make this fine program work. We are counting on you!

CLARENCE BEARD
State Chairman

HOW TO START AN ORATORICAL CONTEST IN YOUR AREA

Obtain a copy of The National High School Oratorical Contest Chairman's Guide and read through it to familiarize yourself with the workings of a contest.

Work with your schools:

- Set up an appointment to speak with the school Principal, English teachers, Governmental History teachers, and ROTC instructors. Discuss what an oratorical contest is all about. Be sure to let them ask questions so they fully understand the program.
- As Post chairman, be sure to leave your name and phone number with them so they can reach you. Offer to help them conduct an in school contest for practice. This could be one of the most important steps as it helps everyone understand the rules and concept. Make sure all the proper judging, timekeeping, and tabulation sheets are used.
- Be available to address the students directly if allowed, and use school bulletin boards and school newspapers to get the word to the students.
- Be willing to return at a later date to address the students, if the schools desire.

Be organized.

- Study the rules and regulations covered in chapter 3 on page 8 of the Chairman's Guide. This will insure correct information being passed along through the various stages of the contest.
- Be sure to have extra copies of your judges scoring sheets along with timekeeping and tabulating sheets.
- A copy of the Video "How to Conduct The National High School Oratorical Contest" is available as outlined in Chapter Eleven of the Chairman's Guide by contacting the National Americanism and Children and Youth Division at (317) 630-1249.
- Chairman's Guide is available at www.legion.org. go to Programs and Events, National Oratorical Contest
- Copies of previous National Finalists Orations are available by calling the National Americanism and Children and Youth Division or Department Headquarters. They may be used as an informational tool, BUT MAY NOT BE COPIED IN ANY WAY!

ASSIGNED TOPICS FOR 2010

Article 4 Section 3 Para 1

New States may be admitted by the Congress into this Union; but no new State shall be formed or erected within the Jurisdiction of any other State; nor any State be formed by the Junction of two or more States, or Parts of States, without the Consent of the Legislatures of the States concerned as well as of the Congress.

Article 5

The Congress, whenever two thirds of both Houses shall deem it necessary, shall propose Amendments to this Constitution, or, on the Application of the Legislatures of two thirds of the several States, shall call a Convention for proposing Amendments, which, in either Case, shall be valid to all Intents and Purposes, as part of this Constitution, when ratified by the Legislatures of three fourths of the several States, or by Conventions in three fourths thereof, as the one or the other Mode of Ratification may be proposed by the Congress; Provided that no State, without its Consent, shall be deprived of its equal Suffrage in the Senate.

Amendment 5

No person shall be held to answer for a capital, or otherwise infamous crime, unless on a presentment or indictment of a grand jury, except in cases arising in the land or naval forces, or in the militia, when in actual service in time of war or public danger; nor shall any person be subject for the same offense to be twice put in jeopardy of life or limb; nor shall be compelled in any criminal case to be a witness against himself, nor be deprived of life, liberty, or property, without due process of law; nor shall private property be taken for public use, without just compensation.

Amendment 6

In all criminal prosecutions, the accused shall enjoy the right to a speedy and public trial, by an impartial jury of the state and district wherein the crime shall have been committed, which district shall have been previously ascertained by law, and to be informed of the nature and cause of the accusation; to be confronted with the witnesses against him; to have compulsory process for obtaining witnesses in his favor, and to have the assistance of counsel for his defense.
